

Applications International Corporation

---

Administration Module

The administration module is used to track and maintain Users, User Security Profiles, Employee Data, Application Picklists, Locations, Departments, Job Roles/Responsibilities, Organization Structure, Communication Groups, Review/Approval Process, Add Custom Fields, and more! Primarily used by system administrators, this module enables your team to make instant updates with an intuitive point and click user interface across your entire organization.

